

Chris Hughes <chris@cajhughes.com>

Your Application to Birmingham City University - 25100153

1 message

donotreply@my.bcu.ac.uk <donotreply@my.bcu.ac.uk>

25 November 2024 at 09:04

Reply-To: donotreply@bcu.ac.uk

To: james@cajhughes.com

Your Application

Start Date: September 2025

BIRMINGHAM CITY
University

1255 Bachelor of Music with Honours

Dear James,

University Application Number: 25100153

Year of Entry 1

UCAS Conservatoires Personal Identification Number: 1305184424

Thank you for your application to the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire for our Bachelor of Music with Honours course, Academic Year: 2025/26, Start Date: September 2025.

Your Offer

We are delighted to tell you that after considering your application; we have decided to make you a conditional offer of a place on this course. We have notified UCAS Conservatoires of our decision and you should now log into UCAS to view confirmation of our offer and details of the conditions.

Please read the contents of this email for important information about:

- Your offer
- Fees
- Next steps

- Other information including accommodation and guidance for students who may need additional support

The conditions of our offer can also be viewed below:

Obtain EE in A-level.

If you have not yet received your offer from UCAS Conservatoires please don't worry. If it doesn't arrive within the next few days please email us at conservatoire.admissions@bcu.ac.uk. We will check your records and get back to you.

Important Information

By accepting this offer, you agree to enter into a contract with Birmingham City University.

The documents that form the contract are:

1. This offer letter;
2. The 2025/6 Terms and Conditions for Taught Awards;
3. Your course information set out in the course specification
4. The Academic Regulations for Taught Awards (including a summary);
5. All other relevant policies and procedures on The Student Contract webpage.

You are encouraged to download and save the Terms and Conditions, Academic Regulations and course information which are included as pdfs above. Please note that the Terms and Conditions provide important information about the relevant policies and procedure and about your right to cancel the contract. Please note the Regulations are reviewed annually and therefore may be subject to change.

Criminal Convictions

Please note this offer is conditional upon the information provided in relation to whether or not you have any relevant, unspent convictions as per paragraph 6 of the Terms and Conditions for Taught Awards. You will need to declare whether you have any relevant, unspent convictions via your mySRS Portal below. Failure to answer this question will result in you being unable to enrol on the course. Further information can be found in the Students with Criminal Convictions Policy and Procedure.

Intimate Relationships

All applicants are required to declare any intimate relationships with a member of Birmingham City University staff as outlined in our Intimate Relationship Policy. This information will be collected as part of the admissions process. If a declaration is made, this will be assessed and considered, including implementing any mitigations. However, if mitigations cannot resolve the conflict of interest, you may be unable to start your course. Please see the Intimate Relationship Policy for further details.

Fees

The fee for your course in the 2025/6 academic year will be £9250.

Please note that tuition fees are payable in each year of your course. If you choose to undertake a Professional Placement Year (where available), the fee for that year will be £1850.

The University reserves the right to increase fees for subsequent years of study in line with increases in inflation based on the Retail Prices Index or to reflect changes in Government funding policies or changes agreed by Parliament. Further information can be found in the University's Tuition Fee Payment Policy

Our Tuition Fees and Money Matters guidance is available at www.bcu.ac.uk/student-info/finance-and-money-matters It provides information about the financial support which may be available to you and contact details for additional sources of advice. Please note that if you have previously studied at University or have an offer for a course at the same level as your previous study you may not be eligible for funding. You can check your eligibility for financial support via: www.gov.uk/student-finance/who-qualifies

It is your responsibility to ensure your tuition fees are covered. Any previous study or funding may impact on eligibility so please ensure you have checked the Student Finance guidance at: www.gov.uk/student-finance/new-fulltime-students

What Happens Next?

If you decide to accept our offer you will need to inform UCAS Conservatoires of your decision via your UCAS MyApplication account. It is very important that you inform UCAS Conservatoires of your decision by the date specified in their confirmation of our offer. Further guidance on how and when to accept your offer is available on the UCAS Conservatoires website.

To view your application details at any time please click on the 'Applications' section in the mySRS Portal. From here you can use the dropdown box to select your application.

Log in to the mySRS Portal

This button will automatically log you into the mySRS portal until it expires on 30 November 2024. After this date clicking the button will take you to the mySRS portal login page. To log in use your username - 25100153 and chosen password.

Need a new password?

If you have forgotten your password or do not yet have a password, you will need to click on the button below and use the "Forgotten your password?" option, complete the details and we'll send you an email with a new password to log in with.

Log in to the mySRS Portal

Guidance for Students who may need additional support

BCU has joined the University Mental Health Charter Programme, which is led by Student

Minds. The Charter Programme brings together universities committed to making mental health and wellbeing a university-wide priority, to share practice and create cultural change.

More information on our mental health and wellbeing support can be found on our Mental Health and Wellbeing Support web pages.

If you have a disability, long-term health condition, mental health difficulty, autistic spectrum condition or a Specific Learning Difficulty such as dyslexia, please visit the University's Disability Support web pages to find out how we support disabled students and what you need to do if you would like disability support at university.

To tell us about your disability, please complete our online profile and consent form, as soon as possible, here: Disability Online Form

If you are leaving local authority care to come to university, the University can offer you additional support. Please visit the University's Care Leavers web pages to find out how we can support you. Please email sa.wellbeing@bcu.ac.uk for more information.

Birmingham City University strongly encourages you to tell us about any additional support you may need so we can help you to achieve your full potential at university.

Accommodation

If you've still not had a look at our accommodation pages please take the time to look over them before applying. We offer a range of on-campus and inner city living, with various facilities and features including en-suites and even gyms!

Email

Until you enrol at the University we will send all communications about your application to this email address. Please remember to inform UCAS Conservatoires if you change your email address.

Our online Help Centre is your first point of call and provides answers to a wide range of questions. If you cannot find the answer to your question you can contact us direct from the Help Centre – this is the easiest way to let us know you need help and get your questions answered.

Congratulations on securing an offer of a place to study at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire. We hope you accept our offer and look forward to welcoming you as a student at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire.

Yours sincerely,

Royal Birmingham Conservatoire Admissions Team

Marketing, Communications and Admissions Department
Birmingham City University

Contact Us